FOR A STOCK SHOW

And Agricultural Exhibit at Bryan, in 1899.

THE FARMERS ENDORSE THE PROJECT.

A Few out of the Many Expression on the Subject Gleaned by The Eagle Man on the Road.

The following named gentlemen, seen by the Eagle man on the road, express themselves favorable to the stock show and agricultural exhibit at Bryan in the summer of 1899, agreeing that it will be a good thing for the farming interests, and stating that they believe the people in the country will heartily co-operate with the projectors of the movement. They say they will try and have something to exhibit if the fair is held, and as opportunity offers, will speak a word for the enterprise among their neighbors and friends:

C. E. Whittington, J. T. Jones,
A. W. Shealey, of Reliance.

J. M. Sherrod of Reliance says he has been accustomed in former years to county fairs, and believes in them. A fair would encourage the cultivation of something besides cotton.

J. P. Lloyd, of Reliance: "I am in favor of an old-fashioned county fair."

W. H. Wiley, Bethel: "A good thing; will encourage enterprise among the farmers."

J. C. Bolton, of Rock Prairie:
"I'll have something to exhibit, if its nothing but an Essex pig."

J. S. Graham of Bethel: "Have had experience in County fairs, and know they are good things for all the people."

James Cooper, of Sulphur Springs: "It is a good thing for any county to have, and if I see it is worked at in earnest, will join in."

A Card.

The unauthorized use of our instruments by non-subscribers has become so common our subscribers in several instances actually had their phones removed in order to be rid of the annoyance occasioned by such use. People who are well able to pay the small rental charged should subscribe for a phone and stop imposing on us and annoying their neighbors. We now give all night service for any and all purposes, but will positively not connect non-subscribers.

it will be a good thing, and vote for the stock show.

Col. A. Hill of Wellborn favors the affair, and says he will have something to exhibit, if its nothing but a game chicken.

W. C. Boyett of College says he will do all he can to help the fair out, and promises to have something to exhibit.

L. F. Battle of College and J. H.
Brewington, 4 miles south of Bryan, expressed themselves as highly pleased to lend encouragement to such an enterprise.

T. E. Shaw of Cottonwood thinks it would stimulate the farmers to diversify crops. Says wheat has been successfully tried in this section, and he believes in diversified farming.

T. W. Beard, T. Lick, and T. B.
Smith of Wixon favor the fair.
Mr. Smith says he has been talking this thing for the past ten years.

A. A. Dean of Alexandria, says back in old Tennessee, the county fair is a great thing, and he believes it would be here too.

W. G. Thweatt, of Cottonwood, says he was accustomed to fairs in Tennessee, and don't see how a county can prosper much without them.

J. M. Hickman of Cottonwood, says back in Indiana, county fairs are all the go and he thinks they should be here too.

R. B. Skains and Babe Stewart, near Bryan, expressed themselves in favor of the enterprise. The latter says he will raise some of his best melons for the occasion.

Mr. Richard Nash of Edge says he thinks Brazos county ought to have something of that kind.

W. E. Graham of Wellborn, believes it a good thing, and thinks the people in his section will cooperate.

R. R. ROYALL WRITES.

A Good Letter about the Enterprise.

Editor Bryan Eagle. Dear Sir: I think the people of Brazos county should be under many thanks to you for agitating a county fair, and more especially the farmers, for there is nothing that improves the people of a county more than a fair, giving us farmers a chance to exhibit our stock and giving the ladies an opportunity of showing their skill in canning fruits, making quilts, raising fowls, etc. I sincerely hope that the fair will be a fair in fact, and I have every reason to believe that it will be well patronized by our citizens and be a means of advertising old Brazos county to the outside world. What is the matter with old Brazos that she cannot have a first class fair every year? Many of us stand ready to help in this undertaking.

Yours for the fair,
R. R. ROYALL.
